Course Description

The seventh grade core curriculum includes reading, writing, listening, and speaking standards. Because the two courses are combined, language arts standards will frequently be mastered through a Utah History perspective. Students are expected to read from a wide variety of genres, both in class and at home. This course includes vigorous writing instruction in poetry, narrative, informational, and argumentative writing. Speaking and listening skills will be refined through oral presentations, group work, class discussion and debates, and note-taking. All classroom activities and assessments are aligned with the Utah Core Standards.

Course Goals and Objectives

- Students will improve critical thinking and problem solving skills in both individual and cooperative activities.
- Reading comprehension will be refined through reading and analysis of literary and nonfiction texts.
- Writer's Notebooks will be used to improve conventions, sentence structure and fluency, ideas, voice, organization and word choice. Students will complete the writing process in Utah Core aligned assessments in poetry, narrative, informational, and argumentative writing.
- Students will analyze primary and secondary Utah History sources to evaluate Utah's diverse community, rich history, and our relationship to the nation.

- Various supplemental materials that support the themes and events presented in this course.
- Students are responsible for returning textbooks with the number assigned to them. Returning a book of a different number will not be accepted. All lost books will be paid for in the main office.

Format and Procedures

- Our class will regularly use group and partner work, debates, inquiry, and presentations.
- Individual accountability and student responsibility is mandatory; students are expected to record their assignments and homework in their planner on a daily basis. It is the student's responsibility to complete class work and homework.
- Students need the following materials:
  - a 1-inch binder (not the floppy kind) with pockets and five dividers (this will be kept in the classroom at all times)
  - lined notebook paper
  - A pen or pencil
  - An independent reading book
  - A two-pocket folder for transporting homework and reading notes to/from school
  - A set of 3-5 multi-colored highlighters
  - A flash drive or email address.

Course Requirements

- Each student is required to:

- Come to class prepared to learn and with the required materials.
- Complete and submit all assignments by the due date.
- Contribute to the class in a positive way.
- Do their best work.
- Respect themselves and everyone else in the classroom.
- While parental guidance is appreciated, the best assessment of growth in content, processes, and skills can be seen in the student's own efforts.
- Plagiarism is not allowed. Those who plagiarize will receive a zero and an opportunity to resubmit, receiving late credit. Second offenders of plagiarism will not be allowed resubmission, the assignment will receive a final score of zero, and a meeting with parents and administration will be scheduled.
- Students caught cheating will receive a zero on the assignment. If a student is caught cheating a second time, a meeting with parents will be scheduled. Any subsequent cheating will include student, parent, teacher, and school administration.
- Citizenship (student behavior) will be evaluated within Clayton Middle School's academic and behavioral expectations, as well as classroom citizenship guidelines.
- Students are expected to read at least twenty minutes each day at home and complete weekly reading responses.
- Students will complete at least one book project per quarter based on their independent reading. Time may be given to work on book projects in class, but most of the work will need to be completed at home. Due dates for the book projects will be posted well in advance.

Grading Procedures

- If a student misses a class, the responsibility of getting the notes, activity sheets and assignments is that of the student. It is also the student's responsibility to speak with the teacher about any material they may not understand from the time they were absent. Students can find their make-up work in the Make Up basket in the classroom. Work that is not made up will result in a zero in the grade book.

- Late work and assignments will be accepted with a 5% penalty for each day that it is late; late work will be accepted between the beginning of each term and midterm, and between midterm and the end of the term.
- Extra credit opportunities will be offered throughout the year; however, students should not depend on extra credit to significantly raise their grade. Completing all work on time is the best way to ensure a good grade in this class.
- Parents and students can check student progress through PowerSchool, accessible through the Clayton Middle School website.
